Amox, Cornelius M.

Service: Mexican War, Private, 3rd Regiment, Company G, Jefferson County. Mustered in 22 Jun 1846, at New Albany, Indiana, by Colonel Samuel Churchill, mustered out 25 Jun 1847, at New Orleans, Louisiana, by Colonel Samuel. Source is Indiana in the Mexican War, Oran Perry, 1908

1860 Census of Cass Co, TX shows C M Amox age 52 with wife S A Amox. It shows him born in Ohio and her in Kentucky.

Cornelius Morrison Amox was born in 1822 in either Indiana or Ohio. On most of the available census data the indications are that he was born in Ohio. However, the earliest records of him are in Indiana. Cornelius attended Hanover College in Hanover, Indiana in 1845. The next record that I have of him is his enlistment in the US Army in New Albany, Indiana 22 June 1846. He was granted a medical discharge from the US Army 25 June 1847. The next record that I have seen is the marriage certificate of his marriage to Sarah Ann Scott on 21 October 1849. Cornelius and Sarah Ann had two children born in Indiana prior to their move to Texas. Aaron Lowery Amox was born 9-15-1850 and Nancy Virginia was born 11-20-1852. Several researchers have Aaron's birth date as 1849, but, Cornelius and Sarah did not marry until 1849, so, I think that that year is not correct and he probably was born in 1850. Some time around 1853 or 1854 the Amox clan moved from Indiana to the Sulphur Springs, Texas area where Frank Preston Amox became the first to be born in Texas on 1-17-1855.

Legend has it that Cornelius died of pneumonia on a return trip for San Antonio, Texas. I have no knowledge of why he went to San Antonio. His exact place of death and subsequent burial is not known. A marker for him is located at the Harris Chapel United Methodist Church Cemetery near Hughes Springs, Texas. Most of the people burried there are descendants of Cornelius and Sarah Ann.

Based on data from several sources, I have come to the conclusion that A L and Virginia were born in Indiana before the family moved to East Texas. Their parents were married in Madison, In 10-24-1849 and they do not show up in Texas until around 1853 or 1854.

There has been quite a stirr over the name of A L Amox. It is actually Aaron Lowery Amox. He was called Larry by some of the family members and others knew him simply as A L Amox. He appears on the 1920 Census of Hopkins County, Texas as Aaron L Amox with his wife and a 14 year old girl named Erina Lee, designated as neice by law. The 1900 census simply lists him as A L Amox with wife
